BOOKS AND BRUNCH

BCS students who were members of the Battle of the Books group were recently invited to Lincoln Academy to participate in the Books and Brunch event. Award winning author Phillip Hoose was there to discuss his award winning book, The Boys Who Challenged Hitler: Knud Peterson and the Churchill Club. In 2012, Hoose had the opportunity to travel to Copenhagen to interview Knud Peterson who was the leader of The Churchill Club. This Club consisted of mostly 9th graders who became the resistance fighters against the Germans. Peterson had the opportunity to read the manuscript in 2014, however, he died before it was published. After the question and answer session, we were invited to a Danish themed brunch. Many thanks to Cathi Howell for hosting this annual event.
