BRISTOL SCHOOL UNSUNG HEROES

Here at Bristol School we have a fabulous food service and custodial staff! Kristine Dyer and Nancy Corson have been able to serve new and delicious menu options for the students this year. They go above and beyond to make sure students are getting healthy, fresh food that tastes wonderful. Just this week I sampled both of the zucchini recipes that were prepared. The breakfast menu stated "muffin" but what you didn't know is that they were served scratch-made zucchini chocolate chip muffins. Each week we are treated to great tasting freshly prepared meals. The custodial crew deserves recognition as well. The transformation that the building has to undergo each summer to thoroughly clean all the rooms is no small feat. We complicate matters even more for these folks by asking them to move programs to different rooms and by having construction/repair projects disrupt the routines. Our crew made sure to have the entire building cleaned, took time to improve the landscaping, and facilitated a large number of painting and repair projects. I can actually say they even had a lot of fun!! We are very lucky to have such a skilled, dependable staff. – Mrs. Ribeiro

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

It is time for the 2nd annual Battle of the Books, sponsored by Lincoln Academy and AOS 93 schools. If you are in grades 6-8, love to read and test your comprehension skills, then sign up with Mrs. Holmes in the library. The competition is scheduled for March 23rd at Lincoln Academy to see who brings home the title!
